

My Fair Havens

Intro 1: Whoa, whoa, whoa ...

Chorus 1: *I'm going up to my Fair Havens,
Gonna reconnect with my camp friends.
I'm going to leave all my worries behind;
Refocus on Jesus so I can find,
Rest and peace in the arms of the Lord,
Refreshed in my spirit through His holy Word.
My life will be changed when I go up to,
My Fair Havens; I'm coming to you.*

Verse 1: Summer's coming and it's gonna be a hot one,
The weather man's calling for lots of sun.
But I know a place where I can beat the heat,
Where the breeze is cool and the air is sweet;

Where I can spend time with my family,
Playing lots of sports or just sit and read.
It sounds like a magical vacation;
Can't wait to get back to my Fair Havens.

Intro 2: Whoa, whoa, whoa ...

Verse 2: Winter's long and hard and cold,
My spiritual life gets dull and old;
But at Fair Havens, it's easy to hear,
When God speaks, He sounds so clear

It's my little piece of paradise,
Heaven on earth and summer blue skies.
It's the perfect place to get away for a while,
And see the faces of my family with great big smiles.

Intro 3: Whoa, whoa, whoa ...

Chorus 2: *I'm going up to my Fair Havens,
Gonna reconnect with my camp friends.
I'm going to leave all my worries behind;
Refocus on Jesus so I can find,
Rest and peace in the arms of the Lord,
Refreshed in my spirit through His holy Word.
My life will be changed when I go up to,
My Fair Havens; I'm coming to you.*

Ending: *My life will be changed when I go up to,
My Fair Havens; I'm coming to you.

My Fair Havens; I'm coming to you.
My Fair Havens; I'm coming back to you.*
